

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 18.

(Including Postage):

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class matter. BRANCH OFFICES

WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1287 BROADWAY, between 31st and 32d sta., New York. BROOKLYN - 359 FULTON ST. HARLEM-

News Department, 150 East 1257R 57.; Advertusements at 237 East 1157R 57.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—Lerogen Bullding, 112

BOUTH STIRT. WASHINGTON—610 147R 87.

against the writer.

Selection of love letters. Of course he decided from his pocket and continued:

"Here is a letter from my LONDON OFFICE-32 COCKSPUR ST., TRAFAL-

The Evening World Prints Associated Press News.

A PLAN FOR TUNNEL VENTILATION.

in a portion of the Fourth Avenue ain's courts. Tunnel a double roof and air-current plan of ventilation, which is elsewhere in promise will be fulfilled only the result of thorough experiment can show. It is expected that the smoke and cinders from passing trains will be utterly cleared turned to with renewed zest. away, and that the most important factor in the process of making the tunnel safe will thus be secured.

Great public interest will attach to the awaited with interest. experiment. Should it succeed there will be cause for intense gratification to the Commissioners and to those who have to travel through the tunnel. It will remove not only a great deal of the danpleasant features of the tunnel passage which are due to the present necessity of closing the passenger cars so tightly against the cinders and smoke. For its of devilled kidneys and ice-cresm. part, the railroad company promises, in the event of the experiment's success, to quickly equip the whole tunnel according to the then-to-be chosen plan.

OHIO'S CONTEST IS ON.

The contest is on in Ohio. McKinley was not satisfied with the verdict at the polls in the Congressional elections of last Fall, when he was of those against whom judgment was rendered. He will have his Tariff issue tried again before the people of the whole State. He is already notified that the Democracy has a very fine conviction that there will be no reversal of judgment on this appeal.

In the Convention which pominated the Major a very pretty attempt was made to cover up the Republican family quarrel in Ohio. Yet the flery FORARER could not miss the opportunity in his speech-making to send a shot or two after some of his late non-supporters in his

And did it strike no Buckeye Republican as a trifle pathetic to see John Sugn. MAN, after his thirty-seven years of publie service, quietly submit to a back seat crowding that the appearances of harmony might go on?

THE SEABRIGHT CALAMITY.

With characteristic generosity, the people of New York City loosen their purse- thing very long. strings and come to the aid of Seabright and its destitute people. A liberal fund is already under way, and care will be kind of a caster William is! taken that it shall be distributed to the best of advantage.

It is a pitiful scene that the fire has left on the site of the late pretty village by the The poorer people have, as is too glass to read it. frequently the case, suffered the most.

A wealthy German has effered a prize of $25,000

They camp at night in tents loaned by to any astronomer who will satisfactorily demonstrate to the control of t the National Guard beside the ashes of their homes and in the midst of current habited. their homes and in the midst of circumhelp and encouragement are extended on of dust, is so small that a lady's thimble would every side. Seabright will rise from its every side. Seabright will rise from its Sometimes old age, instead of imploring Time to turn backward in his flight, seems to catch hold of an off wing and swing the ancient fellow back by main force. Thus, this morning's news told of one robust girl of seventy-six who is cutting her third set of teeth, another of seventy whose white hair is turning black; a third, also of seventy, who has stepped up as the blushing bride of a youth of ninety.

It had been arranged that the Prince of Walks should be host on the occasion of the German Emperor's reception at Guildhall. Discretion has now prompted the substitution of Queen VICTORIA at this function. Perhaps the Prince will, however, be a counter at-Tenny has much to answer for. His failure to win the Suburban drove u young woman to drink, caused her to attack a policeman with a hat pin, and then attempt to hang herself with her corset strings. She is now bemoaning her fate in a dungeon cell.

A Russian, recently arrived, is to be sent back on the ground of insanity for having expressed, at Washington, his desire to help the President run the Government. Yet this is no more than the average citizen constantly manifests his willingness to do.

As to Lieutenant-Governor Jones's attitude towards the Gubernatorial candidacy, the dispatches declare for him that it remains unchanged. Mr. Joses is as oracular as Bunsby, Pray, what is the attitude which is unchanged?

Pugilist Slavin's remarks at Niblo's lest night showed modesty. "I don't show that I'm a fighter." he said. "but I am willing to meet any man, and will do my best to win." Here is an illustra-I am willing to meet any man, and will do my best to win." Here is an illustration of soft words and hard blows.

an electric abook of 2,500 volts. While the fact is interesting from an electrocutionary point of view, half the current, or even less, would have sufficed for the boy, as an experience.

Chevenne has had an innovation and a sangation in the form of a woman jury. And strange as it may appear to the lords of creation, the aggregate of its intelli-SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD | gence was fully up to that of the average jury of men.

> It is reported from Hayti that Hippo LYTE has been shot. But in Hayti the life or death of an incumbent is little more than a contemporaneous episode of a constant revolution.

The six individuals who committed suf cide yesterday, to get rid of the hot weather, apparently had no faith in the weather clerk's predictions.

A New Jersey Judge was nearly tired to to marry, but that does not mean to steal excited over my patent towel-rack, the necessary funds, as a young Pennsyl- Says that Hank Leffingwell and Bill Hen vanian did yesterday.

The Railroad Commissioners have de- $12,500 and his reputation to learn the incided to put into experimental operation | fluence exercised by royalty in Great Brit- swellin' around and running in debt fu

Even the grand stand fell down when this issue fully described. The idea a female nine tried to play ball at Ash. Bought 'em of a tin weddler fur hal looks most promising. Whether its land, Pa. Fortunately no one was hurt. price. Sile wants to ship 'em to me and The Tranby Groft scandal having lost think?"

its edge, the Parnell-O'Shea affair is re-

Does the commanding Major-General of the Army take a new commander at Keokuk to-day? The Adirondack forest fires are out.

New York weather resembles a luncheon

Like young Lochinvar a cold wave has come out of the West. Buy a box for the poor children's strawberry festival. What has become of the sea serpent Do not forget the Sick Babies' Fund.

SPOTLETS.

Semetimes one bird is a cover all by himself. He

The city man who began by raising chickens ended by razing the chicken-house.

Queen Victoria is going to give Albert Edward a piece of her mind. This is almost the only thing the dear old girl is willing to give him.

The "promising young man" pans out badly when the promise is for wedlock and is unfulfilled.

With bated breath the fisher sought. To lure the trout from watery lair. But not a fish he homeward brought; His breath was haited—but for bear

An eagle tried to fly away with a lamb, but found out that he wasn't "fly" enough for the contract.

It is easier to be a 'long shore-man on West stree than on Wall street, where you can't be sure of any William Muldoon, in the cast " As You Like It.

WORLDLINGS.

Sardou, the great French playright, writes a stances such as breed despair. Yet they manufacture of watches. The screw in the fourth The smallest screws in the world are used in the need not be desperate. The hands of jewel wheel, that looks to the naked eye like a bit

John D. Rockefeller's wealth is estimated Oil stock. His real estate is worth $10,000,000. Every workman in Japan wears on his cap and on his back an inscription giving his business and his employer's name. The Japanese language is said to contain 60,000 words, every one of which requires a different sym-bol. It is quite impossible for one man to lear: the entire language, and a well educated Japanese is familiar with only about 10,000 words,

The Kentuckian and City Milk. [From Brooklyn Life.]

Well, Colonel, have any new experience p in New York?"

Yes. Tasted water." How'd you happen to do that?" Drank a milk punch."

He Didn't Feel Burt. (Frem Branklyn Life.)
"I was sorry I couldn't go to hear you lee

Not Strange.

"Another wreck on the New Haven this norning."
"No. How did it happen?" No. How did it happen?"
The train boy dropped a box of his candles the window and threw the car off the

Caution Necessary Now, [From the Chicago Tribune.]
Fond Young Husband (in Boston)—Are th shutters closed, my dear? Beautiful Young Wife-Yes, love. Blinds down ?

Keyhole plugged?" Any policeman hanging about when you ked out just now?"

Health and Strength

Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 DOSES ONE DOLLAR.

Sick Bables Need the Free Doctors in THE PATENT TOWEL-RACK MAIL. Order to Live.

"By George! but won't this weather make corn and 'taters bustle!" ex claimed the patent kitchen roller towel-Huckleberry Plains as I found him resting on a bench in City Hall Park yesterday. I replied that thought it would

and he took a letter "Here is a letter from my son Sile, which I got to-day. Sends me $5 in cast All sensible people advise young men and says everybody at the Plains is still derson have rented the old cooper-shop and are trying to invent a clothes-horse It cost Bir WILLIAM GORDON-CUMMING with eight legs to it. Haven't even in-

> " Well." "We've got four b'ar traps to home see if I can't sell 'em here. What do you tea and saleratus. Say !"

"Why, what would any one in New York want of a bear trap?" "Wall, that's a question I've bin askin Ohio is trying the case of McKinley myself. I spose blars hev got mighty vs. Tariff Reform, and the verdict is skars around here, and there sin't no badgers or foxes to speak of. Awful nice thing, though, to have around the house. Some of those fellers up on Fifth avenue might want 'em to set in front of their smoke-houses or hen-coops. Sam Johnson had bin hookin' ment out o' my ger, but most, if not all, of those un- Now there is only to keep the railroads smoke house fur over six mouths, and one night I caught him in a b'ar trap. He hollered so that they heard him clear over to the Bebee Settlement. Say!"

Yes. "It was the means of making Sam a good man. I wouldn't take him out of the trap till be agreed to lick his boy Tom and he's been ringin' the meetin'-house bell and actin' as usher ever since. Whenever he begins to act up and want to go to a circus or steal watermelous I just whisper 'Meat-smoke-house-b'ar trap to him and he braces right up. These people here don't want their smoke-houses robbed any more than we do."

"You wouldn't find any sale for them here. "Wall, you probably know best, but Sile is kinder sot on it and I thought it wouldn't do no hurt to try. If they hain't got any smoke-houses or hen-coops they might want to use a trap, as Squar Goodhue, of our town, did. He had a gal fights goin' on in the yard to once. The squar' borrowed two of my traps and set rushin' things." "Does the roller towel rack continue to catch on?" I asked. good word for it. I was up on Lexington avenue yisterday, and nine different tuals. wimin told me to be sure to come back in the Fall. They was goin' off to the seashore, and didn't care whether the which neither parent seemed able to rise. cellar, but in the Fall they are goin' to turn over a new teaf. Have I got 'nuff hay-seed on my hat and collar?"

A great plenty.' "Wall, I want to keep it there, I'm only a plain, every-day man, right from Huckleberry Plains, where everybody haugs a pail of butter in the well durin' of which $68,000,000 is Standard at night, and I don't want to be mantooken for no great statesman or millionaire. Say! " Well."

"Yea!

"The other day a feller comes up to "'Old Spearmint, you've struck it. Go down this street two squares and inquire for the boss of the Mint, He wants a dozen.

"I went down and looked all around, It was a Mint where they made mint julips. Say! Don't you say a word so as it'll git ure last Saturday night, Winkle. I had back home, but I had three of em! Yes, nother affair on hand." said Mr. Winkles, sir—traded a towel-rack for three of 'em. oh! I understood," said Mr. Winkles, and I'm kinder headed that way saturday used to be bath night with us, and I'm kinder headed that way agin. It's the all-firedest, nicest drink will struggle between the elements and star-you ever saw. Suck 'er right uρ through vation and the diseases they engender. a straw, and she tastes all the way down. I used to think a glass of buttermilk right out of the cellar hit the spot better'n anything else on earth, but shoo! I guess they poured in considerable hard cider, fur I hadn't more'n the third glass down men in New York for six shillings." You musn't get reckless here in New York. York."

'That's so, and I'm holdin' right on to myself all the time. Why, if Sile should come here he'd canter right to destruction inside of a week; but I'm old and settled.

inside of a week; but I'm old and settled. Them julips was awfui good, though. Jist filled up that straw and gurgled down my throat like a streak of lard runnin' across the kitchen floor, and I felt happier than for nincteen years before. I've got to go slow, however. Fust thing I know I'll be chawin' tobacco and talkin about race-hoases and prize-fights, and what would Huckleberry Plains say to that? Lands! but I'll stick to ginger ale and soda after this!"

"Well, I'll see you again," I said as I made ready to go.

'I hope so. If you meet anybody while poking around who wants a zitchen roller towel-rack don't let him git away. You know all about it—thirteen revolutions—one tempenny nail—saves a quarter tions—one tempenny nail—saves a quarter of a yard and so forth. Good-by."

M. Quan.

uny baby girls unless you help them. Don't be mean.

Every Dollar Helps to Save Suffering Infant's Life.

HE WURLD: WEDNIEDAY EXCESSES

rack man from Nell Nelson Tells of a Poor Family's Lot.

	THE SUBSCRIPTIONS:	00.0
	Previously acknowledged	049.2
	S. P. Kurzman
		5.0
	Martin Mausberger	2.1
	Francis	- 0
	E. S. C.	9
	Fanny and Clarence Tim	10.0
	Berths T.	2.0
1	Eleaner	3.4
	Ramong	1.0
	Book Agent
	Beeste and Helen	2.0
	B. E.	- 0
	Uncle Reub	1.0
	Family of Sympathizers	6.5
1	Charlie Banker	.7
	Harry Harris	: 1
	A Sympathizer	1.0
	П. Р	1.0
	II. J	- 1
	V. Sternroyd	1.0
	A Friend	1.0
Ì	Baby	5.0
	W. A. H	1.6
	A. I., D	1.0

Nell Nelson Tells of a Pathetic Case Which Is One of Thousands.

Just read this rough sketch from life among the shadows of New York and say whether the shadows of New York and say whether you will or will not cast a bit of bread upon the water.

The Leonard Street Industrial School had the East Green to itself all day Tuesday. At 10 the big scholars arrived with lunch baskets, bettled milk, boxes of games and the flags of America and Italy floating to the breeze. An hour later came the kindergarten, followed by a nursery of thirty-seven babies in carts, washes and rheumatic perambulators. Every division had its staff of teachers whose sacred duty it was to give the poor little children a duty it was to give the poor little children a right happy day in on the Green.

Long before the little people arrived a family of four left Leonard street and proceeded to walk to the Park. There was the father, a children who are in pain and suffering dur-young man not yet thirty, with a gaunt fig-ling these heated months.

FANNY and CLARENCE TIM. for breakin' my gate and to git religion, | walk to the Park. There was the father, a be frightful. The hungry eyes were set in the blue saucers and shone with the flerce brilliancy often seen in consumptive cases, and more suggestive of a wild beast than a human being. His face was unshaven, his hair was matted with damp and dust, his clothing has the sheen of long wear, weather stains and untidiness having blended to give it the and untidiness having blended to give it the Please accept 50 cents for your Children's pristine polish of ivory, and his bare feet Fresh Air Fund. Wish I could make it fifty were visible through the cracks in both shoes.

| Book Agent. | Gross, these placed to fall quite to the edge of the front. Over this, but leaving the drops with patent shoes and gaiterettes and sailor hat of the four the four this form. were visible through the cracks in both shoes. There was in the man's whole appearance the concentrated appearance of illness, want, suffering and utter helplessness that amounted to desperation. His poor wife, his junior by six years or more, was pulled down with the weight of who got a yoke of oxen, thirty six sheep every hardship woman can bear and still live. and 'leven hundred fence rails by the Her attire was composite, but antagonistic death of her aunt. All the young fellers and unwomanly, consisting of an old and for nine miles around used to come bedraggled skirt, a Jersey waist, the child's sparkin', and sometimes there'd be six shawl she kept over her head, and a pair of men's shoes, shapeless and worn to the uppers. A swelling on one side of her face made her countenance repulsive to look -'em at the gate, and in two weeks not a upon. There were two children, one a that it may do some good.

Young man in the nayborhood dared look by do there and the other a babe. young man in the nayborhood dared look child of three and the other a babe at his barn. Howsumever, I'll tell Sile half as old. The younger lay in to hold on fur a bit. There's no use little express wagon that had once belonged to some happy-hearted boy, and if she had been washed or freshly dressed this week her condition at 9 c'clock gave no evidence. The group sat on a bench near the Seventy-second street entrance to the Park, patiently wait-She does. The salesain't so dreadful group sat on a bench near the Seventy-second tremendous, but everybody is saying a street entrance to the Leonard street scholars, on whom the family depended for a mouthful of vic

It was the old but distressing story of ill-

They live in one room. Think of it! Yes," the man said, "one room-a kitcher a Leonard street that we pay $3 a month for. I have done no work for eight months. I am not able to do anything. My wife has sup-ported us, but now she is down, and the oung ones here are ailing, and, my God, there seems to be no road for us between the Island and the Potter's Field. " We have another one, a girl of eight. She the Summer and goes to bed at 8 o'clock goes to the school in the block, and they feed her, and this one," indicating the elder, " and what they bring home between them keeps us from starving. Then he told me about the cups, and showed hem to me, that the little sisters take with "Some mighty cute people in this them to school and bring home every noon dice of bread or a baked potato for a cover.

full of warm soup or sweet milk, with a "Them women in the school ain't my faith. me, looks my towel-rack all over and but there're as good as any that ever lived, and I say God bless 'em for all they done for me and mine." What these people endure you cannot ever guess. You can, however, help to lessen their nisery by extending to them the charity com fort owes the wretched. In a little while the eldest child will be and in about an hour I found the place. taken to the country for a week or a fortnight, but there is no such change in store for other two-the baby of fifteen months and the oddler of three. They are too small for the ndustrial School people to handle. They will e left in the city, and all Summer through he stiffing heat that is now upon us they

I could not wait to see what the eldest child would bring to these wretched people, but their condition was deplorable. The weet, invigorating air was too much for the baby sisters who were fast asleep before they had been in the park half an hour. The poor mother took the small flannel shawl from her when I kicked a chair sky high and head and laid it on the grass, making the softoffered to mow an acre of grass with any est and most refreshing bed the child had ever

> To languish in that hot kitchen in the crowded tenement down in Leonard street can only last for a time. The strain would break stronger natures and will break these

This is trightful weather to endure even in he luxury of abundance and conventences. If you with your cool rooms, prettily appointed, nice fresh light clothing, appetizing table refreshing drinks and good water suffer and grow limp under the flery heat of Summer, what must be the creature agony of the poor who have The Latest in Bodices-Mantles for no change of clothing, no bed-chambers, no beds worthy the benignity of Morpheus, no palatable food, and neither fresh air nor fresh water to sustain vitality?

No one lives to himself. All are related to and de, endent upon the great brotherhood of nan. The strong must bear the larger, the weak the lighter part, and the able must make it easy and possible for the sick, the poor and the helpless to endure,

Baby's Fund receive a part of your generous always made over a lining cut in the ordinary

AT THE SEASIDE RESORTS.

A Series of Entertainments to Be Given for the Faby Fund.

poor child has to travel. NELL NELSON.

A series of entertainments for the benefit of the sick babies' fund will be held at various seaside resorts this year, for which a corps of artists have volunteered their services. The entertainments are to be under the management of George M. Wood, who conducted a similar series last year, which netted the fund more than $2,500. The volunteers are headed by Miss Margue-rite St. John, to whose efforts a large share of last senson's successes are due. Frank Lawton, the whistler, also, has again

Frank Lawton, the whistier, also, has again volunteered his services.

Arrangements have already been made for Long Branch, Arerne-by-the-Sea, Far Rock-away, Long Beach, Saratoga, Newport, Hich-field Springs, Babylon, Asbury Park, Hotel Kaaterskill, Stamford, the White Mountains knaterskill, stamford, the White Mountains and Cape Max.

Marie Hubert Frohman—whose recent pro-nounced success in "The Witch" will be re-membered—will give, with her company, a triple bill at the Asbury Park Opera-House in Five Dollars From Each.

We inclose a check for $10 to belo the poor

Bertha's Gift. To the Editor Inclosed find $2 for the Sick Babies' Fund

from little BERTHA T. A Good Wish. To the Editor

Two Good Hearts. Inclosed find $2 for the poor bables.
BESSIE and HELEN.

Uncle Reub's Gift. Please find inclosed $1 for the sick babies.

UNCLE REUS, Water Street Mission. Family Contribution, Please credit the inclosed $6.50 to the Profits of a Show.

Please find inclosed 75 cents, the proceed

Inclosed find 10 cents my grandma gave me babtes, hoping it will do them som

His Bank Money.

A Lawyer's Donation Inclosed find #5 for Baby Fund. S. P. KURZMAN.

Amy-I don't see what attraction Sue finds in Mr. Dolley. Mabel-Capillary attraction.

Bound by a Hair.

Amy-How's that? Mabel-She's fascinated by his mustache. Worth the Money [From Brooklyn L(fe.]

"Jim got $200 from a soap concern for as dvertising scheme." " What was it?" "They employ a hundred dirty tramps to go about the country telling people that their condition is due to their not having used blank's soap."

Too Enticing. [From the Fliegende Blatter.]
Judge-How came you to enter the house But just think, Your Honor! Two o'clock night, no policeman within half a mile; an pen window on the first story! Why, you ould have climbed in yourself!" Obeyed Orders. [From the Both Times.] A small Bath schoolboy, who had been sen some by his teacher because his sisters had e measles, was noticed by that teacher at e next recess playing with the other chil-en in the school-yard. "Johany, didn't i e hext recess playing with the other chil en in the school-yard. "Johnny, didn't il you not to come to school while your sis rs had the measles?" "Yes, but I am no oing in school; I only came up to play with he boys before it begins." Remembered One Passage. [From Dresdener Anseiger.]

A candidate was being examined by four professors. Feeling extremely nervous hi memory falled him several times. At last one of the professors growing impatient thundered out: "Why, you cannot quote a

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Highest of all in Leavening Power.-Latest U. S. Gov't Food Report.

Fads. Fashions and Fancies That Delight the Gentler Sex.

Elderly Ladies-Crepe de Chine Rules in Self-Colored Silks -Revival of the Lavender Industry.

The newest bodices have the backs cut in two pieces only, a seam down the middle, and the small side pieces abolished. These backs pursuit of man, and the happiness we provide are cut on the bias, but it requires a skilful for others trebles our own. Let the Sick hand to make them set well. They are way; in fact, all bodices, however loose and Send a contribution to the cashier and be careless they may seem, are made over care-instrumental in smoothing the rough road one fully fitted linings. Bodices are being cut in different ways, some quite cut away over the hips and forming a very short point. This cut is convenient for wearing under an outer jacket, whereas the Louis XV., with its long pasques, forms a costume in itself. Lace basques are much in favor, but belong essen has presented her pastor with a most remarkable ring. It is probably the only one of the 1st of Brooklyn. His bride to be, I understand, kind in the world. It contains twelve pre- is a beautiful Southern girl. clous stones, the same as were in the Aaronic High Priest's breastplate, and arranged in the same order-sardius, emerald, ligure, beryl, topaz, sapphire, agate, onyx, car buncle, diamond, amethyst and tasper, Mantles for elderly ladies are very fashionable in cape form, but not a few have armaboles in the seam which passes down from the shoulders, and thus may be fastened.

She's a very swagger maides of a figure rather tail, and she doesn't talk like other girls, but only of baseball.

She's a very swagger maides of a figure rather tail, and she doesn't talk like other girls, but only of baseball.

She's a very swagger maides of a figure rather tail, and she doesn't talk like other girls, but only of baseball.

She's a very swagger maides of a figure rather tail, and she doesn't talk like other girls, but only of baseball.

She's a very swagger maides of a figure rather tail, and she doesn't talk like other girls, but only of baseball.

She's a very swagger maides of a figure rather tail, and she doesn't talk like other girls, but only of baseball. down the front. Many bonnets intended for down the front. Many bennets intended for middle-aged wearers have a harsh effect where the bonnet meets the hair without relief, but a charming finish consists of a tiny trimming of gold, with wee Tuscan and gold the same begins to coach she looks a tride bored. She sits well forward on the stand, and when the game begins to coach she looks a tride bored. She wagers candy recklessly on the side that wins. free, comes a row of fancy jet.

Miss Sprule, an English woman, has revived the lavender industry for the poor cottagers of Mitcham. She is a successful grower and distiller of lavender flowers, and furnishes employment for hundreds of men, women and children. The manufacture of tollet waters and oll of peppermint, the plucking and dry-play ball. ing of Provence roses for chemists and the preparation of lavender salts have realized considerable profit to the industry, and for some years she has been, by special appoint-

It generally happens that a favored fashion is copied in washing goods, but the Louis She catches it and sends it back, and looks quite gratified. Quinze coat seems quite eschewed by dress-makers for thin or washable fabrics, and the blouse type is certainly more than ever fashionable for Summer textures. Much Beware the baseball maiden and her fetching little effect may be obtained in cotton gowns from a simple mixture of contrasting colors or a combination of plain and patterned goods. Ordinary pink or heliotrope zephyr makes up delightfully with a deep crossway here of tensely fly. delightfully with a deep crossway hem of striped zephyr in broad showy stripes of pink. She tramples hearts to pieces underneath her dainty feet. ers, no work and the abject poverty out of for my bank, but will send it to the poor little and white, piped with pink. The yoke, Swiss | And seems so quiet all the time and kittenish and belt, collar and deep cuffs may also be of the No need to fall in love with her or for her pity broad stripe, and the costume, aithough yer inexpensive, is really pretty.

In self-colored silk materials little else worn than crepe de Chine, the faille being chiefly reserved for linings. In brocades silks we find contrasts of color most sough after: and the silk and satin broches in bunches of flowers of the same color a the ground of the material, have been superseded by the materials on dull ground. on which geometric designs are thrown up in satin, the surface being then strewn with flowers in contrasting color, with little or no modelling. Shot sliks are coming into vogue again, not the thin, crisp material of forme days, but a close-grained, cloth-like fabric with a predominating tint through which are worked two or three different colors, all brought together with points of white.

Olive Thorne Miller, Brooklyn's queen bird lore asks in a charming story: "Didst ever, dear reader, sit in one pos ion on a camp-stool without a back with head thrown back, and eyes fixed upon one small bird thirty feet from the ground, afraid to move or turn your eyes, lest you miss what you are waiting for, while the sun moves steadily on till his hottest rays pour through some opening directly upon you; while mosquitoes sing about ears (would that they sang only?, and files buzz noisily before your face; while birds flit past, and strange notes sound from behind; while rustling in the dead leaves at your feet suggest snakes, and a crawling on your neck pro claims spiders? If you have not, you can never appreciate the enthusiasms of a bird tudent, nor realize what neck-breaks and other discomforts one will cheerfully endur to witness the first flight of a nestling."

Taking Her Down. [From Brooklyn Life.] "You're awfully proud," said the rooster to single passage of scripture correctly!" "Yea his wife, "just because you've laid an egy that would you say if I told you of a man happen to remember a passage in the Revelations: "And I litted up my eyes and beheld four great beasts." his wife, " just because you've laid an egg. Onstited.

[From Brooklyn Life.]
Potter—Yes, sir, that man is a hypocrite there ever was one. While professing the warmest friendship for me, he was for a whole year stabbing me in the back, and I never Irwin-Goodness gracious! What kind of a back have you got?

Knew His Weakness, "Where shall we go this Summer, Bobbi

"I don't know. I haven't heard where Miss THE price of MONELL'S TRETHING CORDIAL places a within the reach of all who have infants. The, "."

THE GLEANER.

Having occasion to meet the Lumber Trade Association recently, it did me good to see he good will every one exhibited towards my old friend Edwin H. Ogden, the genial Secretary of the Association. Many of the plans that finally brought the lumber war to an early end were due to his keen perception and good judgment. I had the pleasure yesterday afternoon o eeing a cordial meeting between Presiden Wagstaff and ex-President Howell, of the Board of Bridge Trustees. No one could have ecognized from their hearty, whole-souled marger the principals in the recent struggle for supremacy in the Board of Trustees.

How would this do for a civil-service quer tion in an examination of applicants for positions in the municipal service? At the intersection of what street with Third avenue is there no liquor saloon? The natural answer to such a question made by any person who has ever travelled over that long avenue from the Bowery to Hariem Bridge would be that no street crossed it where a saloon is not located on one of the four corners. This would be a mistake, however. The enterpris ing liquor dealer has failed to pre-empt eithe corner of Eleventh street.

I am always amused when passing through Park Row, in the neighborhood of the cheap lothing establishments, and especially so yesterday. The "pullers-in" were foundly extolling the merits of their wares, and particularly their fast colors, but I noticed that every bright blue serge suit which was hung out to catch the eye of prospective customer was protected from rays of the sun by wrapping paper. The colors might have been 'fast," but the dealers' suspicious action in thus protecting the garments furnished ground for the belief that they were not fas tened.

Louis C. Bruns, Clerk of the First District Civil Court, is as ardent a turfite as Judge Mitchell, of the same Court. He seldom misses a race, and his ability to pick the winners is aid to be even greater than that of the Judge.

Very few people know that Oscar D. Hall he old gentleman who has for many years een engaged in the trunk business in th Bible House, is an uncle of ex-Mayor A Cards have been sent me for the wedding of

Peyton Lyon, the well-known amateur cornetcouple will not lack for good wishes, as they have a host of friends in the City of Churches

The Baseball Girl.

VACRANT VERSES

Her hair is brown and curly and her eyes are very And that sportive little smile of hers will cause your heart to beat.

She'll clap her tau-gloved hands in glee to cheer a

She talks of "fliee" and "liners" in a manuer that is pat;
She can tell you in a minute who it is that's at the hat.
She dotes on Keefe and Connor, and raves about their "curves." ment, purveyor of lavender essence to the And you'd really think she had been constructe without nerves.

id to wed a baseball man and has no u

-Kate Masterson, in Kansas City Star A Poor Rule. Said Mary to Johnny, "O, dear!
This play is too poky and slow;
There's only one bobbe pipe here—
O, Johnny, please, I want to blow!"
"No, I'll blow them for you," said he,
"Just watch, and you'll see every one;
That leaves all the labor to me.
While you will have only the fun,"

Said Johnny to Mary, "O my!
That apple so big and so bright,
You can't eat all if you try;
O Mary, please, I want a bite!"
'No, I'l eat it for you, "said she,
'' And show you just how it is done;
I'l take all the labor, you see,
And you will have only the fun !"

Moman's Jour A Horse of Another Color. He used to play the races.
That's why he looks so grim;
He finds, now he retraces,
That they were playing him.

Illustrated Witticisms Culled from Various Sources. A Young Diplomat.

Dors-O Dolph ! I'm going to tell ma ! Dolph Arom interior of the closet)-ot tell her till I give you half this cake, Out of Sight.

Mum? I left it last Summer. Mrs. Phligh-Did you? Well, we didn't find

Their First Trip.

Mrs. Cowslip (excitedly)-What is Mr. Cowslip (absentmine whistle. Cows on the track, (absentmindedly)-Only the

A Beginning.

Digby (showing his new purchase)-I think I can make quite a horse out of him.

Higby—You certainly have a good frame-Couldn't Do Everything.

bills failed to pass!

Wrathful Assemblyman—Yes: but every one of the boys who wanted a pass got one didn't they? What do you want—the carth : A Decided Objection. [From Munsey's Weekly.]
The Friend-Do you think you will marry

(Prom Puck.)
Kicking Constituent—Every one of your

he Viscount? The Belle (doubtfully)—No; I think not. He hardly matches my complex Jealous. [From Brooklyn Life.]
"Burhins is still cursing the census." " It embraced his wife."

A Perverse Woman. [From the American Grocer.] "What! you love another! But you said you'd marry me if your father disowned you."
"I know. But he didn't disown me, you

A Flop.

[From Judge.] She—How sylphlike she is!

He-Yes; and doesn't she dance like a mer-111111/ PEARLINE FOR SALE 111

Drives Women to their Senses. It's the time when they must have something to lessen their work. It's the time when they must have Pearline. Nothing else saves as much or does as much, in all washing and cleaning—and it's done without harm. Soak your clothes in Pearline and water-no soap-

Pearline contains all the soap necessary-two hours, or over night, rinse well, and they will be clean-particulars for this way of washing on every package. Hot weather increases the number who use Pearlins-but in cooler times there's no falling off.

Larkin is to be."

"Why, I thought that engagement was off."
"So It is. And I don't want it on again, so I want to avoid going where she is."

Once they've used it, you can't drive them into giving it up.

Peddier and some unsergoulous grooms will tell you, "this is as good."

Peddiars and some uncorpulous grooses will tail you. "this is as g as" or "the same as Fearline. If a FALSE. Pearline is as peddied, and if your groose sends you conneiting in pisce of Fearli do the hunest thing send to beat. 190 Saltin FALS. Rev Fort.

It's easily explained, you can drive women to use Pearlins-some of them have to be driven to it. But,